PART 6. PLAN PARTICIPANT AUTHORIZATION

Important: Please read before signing.

I have read and understand the distribution notice provided to me. In addition, if I am eligible to waive the notice requirements under Internal Revenue Code Sections 402(f), 417(a)(3), and 411(a)(11), I hereby waived the 30-day notice period.

If this request is for a coronavirus-related distribution, I certify that the reason for this distribution is that either 1) I was diagnosed with the virus SARS-CoV-2 or with coronavirus disease 2019 (referred to collectively as COVID-19) by a test approved by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (including a test authorized under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act); 2) my spouse or my dependent was diagnosed with COVID-19 by a test approved by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (including a test authorized under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act); 3) I have experienced adverse financial consequences because (i) I, my spouse, or a member of my household was quarantined, furloughed or laid off, or had work hours reduced due to COVID-19;(ii) I, my spouse, or a member of my household was unable to work due to lack of childcare due to COVID-19;(iii) a business owned or operated by me, my spouse, or a member of my household closed or reduced hours due to COVID-19; or (iv) I, my spouse, or a member of my household has had a reduction in pay (or self-employment income) due to COVID-19 or had a job offer rescinded or start date for a job delayed due to COVID-19; or 4) I have experienced other factors as determined by the Secretary of the Treasury that result in me being classified as a qualified individual (visit <https://www.irs.gov/coronavirus/coronavirus-and-economic-impact-payments-resources-and-guidance> for the latest guidance). A member of my household is someone who shares my principal residence. I have not taken, in aggregate, more than $100,000 in coronavirus-related distributions from my eligible retirement plans (including IRAs) in 2020. I understand I may roll over my distribution (in one or more payments) for a period of three years, beginning the day following the day I receive my distribution. I understand that I alone am responsible to retain any necessary documentation and monitor the $100,000 limit.

I certify that I am authorized to take distributions from this retirement account and all information provided by me is true and accurate. I confirm receipt of the State Withholding Notice Information. I understand this is a self-directed account meaning that I am solely responsible for the selection, due diligence, management, review, retention and liabilities of all investment(s) and for the accuracy of the instructions provided to the Custodian or Administrator to fulfill those investments. I understand the Custodian and Administrator are not fiduciaries and do not provide investment, tax or legal advice. I expressly assume all liability, and agree Custodian is not responsible, for any consequences that may arise from this distribution.

Eligible Rollover Distributions

Eligible rollover distributions can be made directly to another qualified retirement plan/401(k), governmental 457(b), 403(a), 403(b), or government thrift savings plan that will accept it (direct rollover) or, if you choose, a Traditional, SIMPLE, or Roth IRA.

Eligible rollover distributions are all distributions from the plan except the following:

- Required minimum distributions;
Certain installment payments that are a part of a series of equal (or almost equal) periodic payments that will last for your lifetime (or the joint lives of you and your beneficiary) or for a specified period of 10 years or more; and
Distributions due to hardship

If you choose to rollover an eligible rollover distribution to a Roth IRA, you must include all pre-tax assets in your taxable income in the year of the distribution.

NOTE: A rollover to a SIMPLE IRA may not be made until two years after the first contribution to the SIMPLE IRA.

Withholding Instructions

Lump Sum Distribution/Partial Distribution - If your distribution is eligible for rollover and it is being distributed directly to you, you will be subject to mandatory Federal tax withholding of 20 percent of the payment (and State tax, if applicable) that must be submitted to the IRS at the time of the distribution as income tax withholding to be credited against your taxes. You cannot waive this withholding.

If your distribution is not an eligible rollover distribution or is a coronavirus-related distribution, Federal tax (and State tax, if applicable) will be withheld at the rate of 10 percent of the payment, unless you specify to waive withholding or withhold at a higher rate.

State Withholding - Depending on your state of residency, the custodian may be required to withhold state income tax at a rate specified by your state, unless you waive it.

Direct Rollover - There is no mandatory withholding for direct rollovers. If your distribution is being directly rolled over to a Roth IRA, withholding is optional. Please specify if you wish to have Federal tax (and State tax, if applicable) withheld from your distribution. Even if you do not have income tax withheld, you are liable for payments of income tax on the taxable portion of your distribution. You may also be subject to tax penalties under the estimated tax payment rules if your payments of estimated tax and withholding, if any, are not adequate.

Your withholding election does not apply to any periodic or non-periodic distributions that are delivered outside the U.S. or its possessions to a U.S. citizen or resident alien. If you are a non-resident alien, your distributions are generally subject to a tax-withholding rate of 30 percent. A reduced withholding rate, including exemption, may apply if there is a tax treaty between your country of residence and the United States, and you submit Form W-8BEN, Certificate of Foreign Status of Beneficial owner for United States Tax Withholding, or satisfy the documentation requirements as provided under the regulations.

Periodic Distribution

For purposes of the withholding rules on distributions that are not eligible rollover distributions, a periodic distribution is one that is includible in your income for tax purposes and that you receive in installments at regular intervals (e.g., annually, quarterly, monthly, etc.) over a period of time (more than one year).

Periodic distributions are treated as wages for purposes of withholding. If you do not waive withholding on your periodic distributions, Federal income tax needs to be withheld from each payment as if you were a married individual claiming three withholding allowances. However, you can change the amount of the withholding.

Withholding Allowances: [input] Marital Status: [input] Single [input] Married [input] Married, but withhold at a higher "single" rate

Additional Amount to be Withheld: [input] [input] I elect to waive Federal Income Tax (and State Withholding, if applicable)

Remember that there are penalties for not paying enough tax during the year, either through withholding or estimated tax payments. New retirees, especially, should see IRS Publication 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax. It explains the estimated tax requirements and penalties in detail. You may be able to avoid quarterly estimated tax payments by having enough tax withheld from your pension or annuity using Form W-4P, Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments.
