! I understand that if I become married in the future, my spouse will be my Primary Beneficiary unless I complete a new Designation of Beneficiary form and my spouse consents to my designation.

I Am Married

! I understand that my spouse will be my Primary Beneficiary. However, I understand that I may designate a Primary Beneficiary other than or in addition to my spouse if my spouse consents to my designation.

! I elect not to designate beneficiaries at this time and understand that I may designate beneficiaries at a later date.

Add Beneficiary(ies)

! I designate the individual(s) or entity named below as my primary and/or contingent beneficiary(ies) of my qualified plan balance. This list supplements, but does not replace, the beneficiary(ies) previously designated by me prior to this Designation of Beneficiary form.

Replace Beneficiary(ies)

! I designate the individual(s) or entity named below as my primary and/or contingent beneficiary(ies) of my qualified plan balance and hereby revoke all prior beneficiary(ies) designations, if any, made by me.

Beneficiary Information

If neither primary nor contingent is indicated, the individual or entity will be deemed to be a primary beneficiary. If more than one primary beneficiary is designated and no distribution percentages are indicated, the beneficiaries will be deemed to own equal share percentages in my qualified plan balance. Multiple contingent beneficiaries with no share percentages indicated will also be deemed to share equally. If any primary or contingent beneficiary dies before me, his or her interest and the interest of his or her heirs shall terminate completely, and the percentage share of any remaining beneficiary(ies) shall be increased on a pro rata basis. If no primary beneficiary(ies) survives me, the contingent beneficiary(ies) shall acquire the designated share of my qualified plan balance. The total beneficiary share percentage designated MUST equal 100%. Treasury Reg 1.401(a)(9) defines an eligible trust as beneficiary as irrevocable or a revocable trust that it becomes reclassified as irrevocable upon death. If a revocable trust is listed as either a primary or contingent beneficiary, the account owner is responsible to ensure it meets the Plan requirements.

PART 5. IMPORTANT PLAN INFORMATION

About Qualified Pre-Retirement Survivor Annuities

If you are a married participant in your employer's qualified retirement plan, the law requires that any amount remaining in your plan account be paid to your surviving spouse in a certain manner at your death. This manner of payment, called a "Qualified Pre-Retirement Survivor Annuity," will provide your spouse with a series of periodic payments over his or her life. The size of the periodic payments will depend on the amount remaining in your plan account.

For example, assume that a participant dies with an account balance of $10,000. If the balance is paid to the surviving spouse in the form of a Qualified Pre-Retirement Survivor Annuity, the annuity will provide the spouse with monthly payments of $76.60. (This payment amount is an estimate based on the Individual Annuity Mortality Tables - 71 using a 5 percent interest rate with payments commencing at age 65.)

You may elect to waive the following:

1. The requirement that your surviving spouse be paid in the form of a Qualified Pre-Retirement Survivor Annuity, and
2. The requirement that your spouse be your beneficiary (only if applicable).

You may make either or both of the above elections beginning with the first day after which you become a participant in the plan. Any waiver election you sign before age 35 will become invalid the first day of the plan year in which you attain age 35. At that time you may again waive the Qualified Pre-Retirement Survivor Annuity and the requirement that your spouse be your beneficiary.

Your spouse must consent in writing to either waiver. You have the right to revoke any waiver that you have made at any time before your death. Your spouse must also consent to any subsequent changes of beneficiary.

If your vested account balance is $5,000 or less at the time of your death, the plan administrator may make a distribution to your surviving spouse in a single sum cash payment even if you did not waive the Qualified Pre-Retirement Survivor Annuity.

Because a spouse has certain rights under the law, you should inform your plan administrator immediately of any changes in your marital status. A change in your marital status may require you to complete a new Designation of Beneficiary form.

For more information regarding Pre-Retirement Survivor Annuities, contact your plan administrator (employer).
